NEW LEADER IS FULLY CAPABLE

Nuch Is Expected of Congressman John Sharp Williams.

LATEST GOSSIP OF THE NATION-

members of the house are free in expressing the opinion that, under the leadership of John Sharp Williams, the Democrats will make it more interesting for their opponents than they have done for the two congresses in which Representative Richardson was the leader Richardson's opposition was of the negative order, while Williams will be positive and assertive. The house Democrats for the past two congresses apparently have had no definite or settled line of policy. In the presentationes they are already developing one which threatens to give the Republicans much aneasiness. The Democratic proposition to enter into reciprocal trade relations with Canada, look to the Republicans as if some of their own thunder is to be stolen, and they are much at sea as the new move on the part of the minority may tend to divide the solid forces of the manofority and work the party's undoing on the grat question of the tariff. Mr. Williams apparently has with him the unifed support of his party and he is a leader in fact as well as in name, his personality being attractive and, it might be said, lovable to his followers. His nonly danger at this time seems to be the possible fealousy of the prosent to the prossible policy and the proposition of the tariff. His only danger at this time seems to be the possible jealousy of Representative De Armond of Missouri, who would be the minority leader himself. There was a slight clash at the last day's session between the two over a question of procedure, and it became evident that they were not working in entire harmony. Under the leadership of Williams the coming regular session promises to be the most interesting exhibition of party sparring, congress has offered for many years.

Church in Washington, and one of the most interesting in the country. It has so long been known as the president's church that it is as well known by that name as by its more orthodox titlé. The highest price ever paid for a pew in it was $3,500. When a pew is sold at auction the buyer receives only the right to occupy or sublet it, and is obliged to pay rent to the church at the beginning of each year.

The custom is an old English one, but was done away with several years ago in that country by an archbishop, who considered it scandalous to sell church property at public auction. Fads and Hobbies.

Rev. Forrest J. Prettyman, who was selected to act as chaplain of the senate during the extraordinary session, will probably be elected as the perma-rent successor of the late Dr. Milburn, the blind chaplain who for so many years opened the senate with many years opened the senate with morning prayer. Mr. Prettyman is pastor of a Methodist Episcopal church of Baltimore and appears to be well suited for the post which may be offered him.

Fads and Hobbies.

The fads and hobbies of men in public life are as interesting as their big achievements, or the policies which they have made. Of course the president's hobby is outdoor exercise, particularly horseback riding. Senator Morgan, who recently gave the administration such a scoring on the Panama situation, has made it known all over the country that his one and only hobby is the Nicaraguan canal. The weakness of Tom Reed was his sarcasm. The Czar could be a genial companion, a downright, all-around good fellow, but he could say the most cutting things. On one occasion, when scheduled to give a talk at a business men's dinner in New York, he made a remark that tingles in the ears of the man at whom it was directed even yet. Mr. Reed was preceded by the president of a mining corporation, who made the rascality of the legal profession his theme. When the "Czar" rose he said, looking at the offending speaker, "All lawyers may be rascals, but all rascals are not lawyers."

Effect of a Good Dinner.

One of the most effective and at the same time pleasing methods of accomplishing results in efforts to obtain legislation by congress is to dine its members. Under the softening intuences of a good dinner, with environment of music, flowers, witty speeches, ready repartee, and all-around good fellowship, the average senator and congressman, and many who are above the average, will cotten kindly to the measure, when under more prosaic circumstances they would be averse to giving it much attention. The senator or member who will blow in a fair portion of his salary in entertaining his fellow members of congress makes a good investment for his constituents, even though it puts his own bank balance in the red. Senator Mitchell of Oregon, who is one of the veterans of the senate, having the form of the veterans of the senate having the average of the same time pleasing methods of accomplishing results in efforts to obtain legislation by congress is to diministration such as corning methods of accomplishing resul Effect of a Good Dinner. the legal profession his theme. Seven years ago he took a similar outing in Arizona, and after his holiday rode all the way back to his home in Philadelphia, using western cow ponies for the fourney. Senator Hale of Maine has a fancy for a chaing disk; also a gift for making salads. The Hale salad, made in the privacy of the Allbi club; is the spiciest, hottest thing known to Capitol gournets.

Mr. Horr says: "I suffered from what I considered the worst case of Catarrh a man could possibly have. I could hardly smell kerosene. I could not tell one food from another by smell. I blew scabs out of my dose two inches long. I could hardly speak at times, had constant colds, with head stopped up, and generally felt sick and run down. I had about given up hope of a cure until I went to our Home Doctors, Drs. Shores & Shores.

"In a very few weeks, I felt all right, all my old symptoms left me. My head got clear and to all outward appearances I was cured. I spoke of this splendid work to my friends from time to time, but I WANTED TO SEE IF THE CURE WAS PERMANENT, so I have waited now over fitteen months, and FIND NO RETURN OF MY TROUBLE, but, on the contrary, I never felt better in my life. I have no trace of Catarrh, I weigh more than I ever did, have good appetite, sleep well and I feel like a perfectly sound and healthy man, and I have concluded there is no doubt about my cure being ABSOLUTELY PERMANENT AND COMPLETE."
